

"Muddy water is best cleared by leaving it alone."

Muddy water is best cleared by leaving it alone.

- conflict
- peril decision?
- argument
- Chaos

◦ not engaging

◦ assessing it.

◦ stepping back

for a while ~~not on~~

! ... for better
assessment of the situation.

→ Life is full of decisions, some of more importance than others — they have severe outcomes when failed.

→ Resolving of conflict/issues require deeper understanding, understanding of the other person's feelings and keeping ourself in their shoes

→ When in doubt — step back; view the entire thing even if it means to postpone the decision for few hours to take the best approach.

→ Overcoming problems require great effort and planning with flawless execution — take our independence struggle; many of ~~of~~ our ancestors and freedom fighters went through <sup>so</sup> we could live in this blessed, beautiful nation independently.

Inversion:

Some decision need to be made in the nick of time, military's strategic vantage point along the borders or administrating people and their well being during a pandemic like COVID-19. It is a responsibility of the decision makers to calculate and keep in mind that any mishap, any unfortunate situation could put the life <sup>of citizen</sup> and nation in jeopardy.
